

IBACS End of Year Event

Wednesday May 1st, 2024 from 10am – 2pm in the Rome Ballroom

- 10:00 AM Welcome & Opening Remarks
IBACS Directors
 Emily Myers, Director of Training
 John Salamone, Director of Outreach & Communications
Presentation of the Phillip P. Smith Award in Cognitive Science
UConn Administrators
 Pamir Alpay, Vice President for Research, Innovation, and Entrepreneurship
 Ofar Harel, Interim Dean for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- 10:30 AM Data Blitz (5 minutes each)
Nicole Landi, Psychological Sciences (DEV); Faculty
Intuitive beliefs about dyslexia: parents and educators
Alice Burghard, UCH Neuroscience; Faculty
Sound exposure and the central auditory system
Greg Sartor, Pharmacy; Faculty
Novel therapeutics for opioid use disorder
Erika Skoe, Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences; Faculty
Abnormal central gain in Post-acute COVID syndrome
Gerry Altmann, Psychological Sciences (PAC); Faculty
The cognitive bladder
Dimitris Xygalatas, Anthropology; Faculty
Emotional contagion in collective gatherings
Brittany Lee, Psychological Sciences (DEV); Post-Doc
Expository and narrative comprehension processes in children with reading disability
Emma Wing, Psychological Sciences (PAC); Graduate Student
Investigating a potential correspondence between linguistic and conceptual structure
Ty Wrenn, Psychological Sciences (BNS); Graduate Student
Observational learning: more than just watching & learning
Questions
- 11:30 AM Break-Out Sessions for Collaborative Grant Discussions
- 12:00 PM Break
- 12:15 PM Poster Session (IBACS Affiliated Labs) & Lunch
- 2:00 PM Event Concludes

Event Location Details

(A) South Parking Garage

(B) Rome Ballroom

- The ballroom is located on the 2nd floor of Rome Commons/South Dining Hall

Parking is available in the South Parking Garage, marked on the map below.

If you have any questions, please email us at ibacs@uconn.edu

